1. Take turns asking questions.

a. If the person gets the answer right, they get to attack a coordinate.

b. If they get the question wrong, no guesses. It's now the other person's turn.

- 2. A guess is giving coordinates, such as "D4". The answer is either "hit" or "miss".
- 3. Mark the hits in red and the misses in another color.
- 4. Once you've sunk all 5 of your opposition's ships, you win. A ship is sunk when you've hit it in every spot it covers.
